

Why does my business card crack around the edges?

Written by Web Master
Friday, 22 July 2011 10:28 -

Cracking of the edges of a business card sometimes occurs when the card contains high values of ink, as in dark colors. This usually happens on a small amount of cards in the run. To prevent this, use lighter colors or if you must use dark colors, use as little ink as possible.